

Senator John Douglas

Senate District 17

Senator John Douglas was first elected to the Georgia State Senate from the 17th District in 2004. Sen. Douglas has also served Georgia in the House of Representatives from 2002-2004, and served on the Newton County Board of Education from 1998 to 2002, which he chaired in 2002.

Sen. Douglas is a Republican, representing the citizens of Newton county and parts of Henry, Rockdale, Spalding and Walton counties. He is currently chairman of the Veterans, Military and Homeland Security Committee and secretary of the Higher Education Committee. He also serves on the Appropriations, Transportation, Ethics and Public Safety committees.

Sen. Douglas received his Bachelor of Science in Political Science from North Georgia College and State University. He also received a Masters of Liberal Arts from Mercer University.

Sen. Douglas served in the U.S. Army from 1977-1994. He is an active member in the Newton County GOP and American Legion Post 32. He attends Salem United Methodist Church and is director of the Audio/Visual Team.

Sen. Douglas and his wife Susan have one daughter, Katherine.

For more information, please visit www.senatorjohndouglas.com.

January 2009